Harassment can occur because of a single incident or a pattern of behavior where the purpose or effect is to create a hostile, offensive, or intimidating work environment. ### Conceal & Carry Policy

Iowa Administrative Code DCF 251.06(2)(c) prohibits the possession of any dangerous items including, but not limited to, firearms, ammunition, knives, and explosive devices on the premises of a state-licensed childcare facility.

DCF 251.06(2)(c) addresses the presence of firearms and ammunition in a licensed group childcare center as follows: DCF 251.06(2)(c) Firearms, ammunition, and other potentially dangerous items may not be kept on the premises. This code applies regardless of whether the individual is licensed to carry a concealed weapon under Iowa State Law.

DCF 251.06(2)(c) code does not apply to law enforcement officers while engaged in their official capacity.

Zero Tolerance for Workplace Violence

Safari will, within reason, do whatever is necessary to protect the lives and health of employees and provide a workplace free from verbal abuse, threats, or assaults that could cause or result in harm to those who are employed. Safari has a definitive "zero tolerance" for violence of any kind, including threats of violence.

Drug and Alcohol Policy

Safari advocates that our institution be free from the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of controlled substances by employees. Additionally, employees are to work free from the effect of alcohol and other performance-impairing substances.

Drug testing may be required by any employee, who while on duty, demonstrates signs of being under the influence, and demonstrates inappropriate behavior suggesting impairment or who is observed consuming alcoholic beverages or drugs. Refusal to cooperate with drug testing and rehabilitation will result in immediate discharge. Violations of this policy will subject the employee to disciplinary action up to and including discharge.

Because prescription medication can also affect an individual's demeanor and job performance, it is the employee's responsibility to notify the Owner/Program Director if he or she is taking any legal prescription drugs. The employee is also required to provide the Owner/Program Director with a doctor's note authorizing the drug is safe to take while working. Such prescription drugs must be given under medical supervision and may not interfere with the performance of job duties. Depending on the seriousness and circumstances of the offense, and at the company's sole discretion, an employee who tests positive for drugs and alcohol may be referred to counseling, rehabilitation, or employee assistance program. Refusal to cooperate in this program may result in discipline, up to and including termination.

Code of Conduct

Aligned with NAEYC (National Association for the Education of Young Children)

Ethical Responsibilities to Children

Childhood is a unique and valuable stage in the human life cycle. Our paramount responsibility is to provide care and education in settings that are safe, healthy, nurturing, and responsive for each child. We are committed to supporting children's development and learning; respecting individual differences; and helping children learn to live, play, and work cooperatively. We are also committed to promoting children's self-awareness, competence, self-worth, resiliency, and physical well-being.

Ethical Responsibilities to Families

Families are of primary importance in children's development. Because the family and the early childhood practitioner have a common interest in the child's well-being, we acknowledge a primary responsibility to bring about communication, cooperation, and collaboration between the home and early childhood program in ways that enhance the child's development.

Ethical Responsibilities to Co-workers

In a caring, cooperative workplace, human dignity is respected, professional satisfaction is promoted, and positive relationships are developed and sustained. Based on our core values, our primary responsibility to our co-workers is to establish and maintain settings and relationships that support productive work and meet professional needs. The same ideals that apply to children are also used as we interact with adults in the workplace.

Ethical Responsibilities to Community and Society

Early childhood programs operate within the context of their immediate community made up of families and other institutions concerned with children's welfare. Our responsibilities to the community are to provide programs that meet the diverse needs of families, to cooperate with agencies and professions that share the responsibility for children, to assist families in gaining access to those agencies and allied professionals, and to assist in the development of community programs that are needed but not currently available. As individuals, we acknowledge our responsibility to provide the best possible programs of care and education for children and to conduct ourselves with honesty and integrity. Because of our specialized expertise in early childhood development and education and because the more substantial society shares responsibility for the welfare and protection of young children, we acknowledge a collective obligation to advocate for the best interests of children within early childhood programs and in the broader community and to serve as a voice for young children everywhere. The ideals and principles in this section are presented to distinguish between those that pertain to the work of the individual early childhood educator and those that more typically are engaged collectively on behalf of the best interests of children—with the understanding that individual early childhood educators have a shared responsibility for addressing the ideas and principles that are identified as “collective.”

RULES OF CONDUCT/COMPLAINT RESOLUTION

Disciplinary Policy & Procedure

When an employee disregards the rules established by Safari or conducts herself/himself in a manner which is deemed unacceptable, the first approach (when practical) will be that of guidance. Counseling by the Owner/Program Director is intended to assist you in the correction of your conduct. The Safari Director will be notified of all disciplinary actions. All matters of disciplinary procedures are done in private.

Policy Stages:

The stages that may be followed when discipline is deemed necessary include the following:

- 1. Verbal Warning
- 2. Written Warning/Corrective actions & Counseling
- 3. Short Term Suspension-3-day suspension without pay
- 4. Termination

The nature of the offense must be explained to the employee from the beginning of the procedure. The verbal warning may take the form of a simple oral reprimand but also a full discussion if that is necessary.

The employee must read and sign all policy stage written documentation when a disciplinary action has taken place. These documents include the time limit in which an employee must correct their conduct before we take further disciplinary action.

Performance Issues: Disciplinary procedure starts at stage, 1, and 2: The following scenarios indicate where the disciplinary procedure starts depending on the violation: It includes but is not limited to:

- Failure to meet performance objectives.
- Attendance issues

- Rude behavior to families, staff and or children

Further stages may also take place, per the Director, Owner and or On-Site supervisor, depending on the severity of the action.

Severe offensive behavior/Felony: Disciplinary procedure starts at stage 3 and 4. The following scenarios indicate where the disciplinary procedure starts depending on the violation: It includes but is not limited to:

- Breach of employment agreement/contract
- Harassment/Voluntary discrimination
- Workplace Violence
- Substance Abuse

The owner/Program Director may choose to repeat stages of our disciplinary procedure as appropriate. This decision depends on the employee's reaction to our disciplinary procedure, whether they repent their behavior and the nature of their offense.

Our disciplinary procedure begins when there is sufficient evidence to justify it. When there is suspicion or hints of misconduct, Owner or Program Director must investigate the matter first.

Owner/Program Director should document every stage of our disciplinary procedure. If appropriate, include necessary information like evidence, documentation to staff file, testimonies and employee's progress or improvement. We are obliged to refrain from disciplinary actions that may constitute retaliatory behavior. A no retaliation company policy will be always effective to ensure there is no misuse of our disciplinary procedure. We have the right to modify this policy or act in any other legal or reasonable way as each case demands. But we will always enforce discipline in a fair and lawful manner.

These steps are meant to establish consistent guidelines to consider in conjunction with the severity of the offenses and the employee's personnel and performance records when administering discipline. We are not required to go through the entire four-step process, and discipline may begin or continue at any step, depending on the severity of the infraction. The nature and severity of any violation can be of such a degree as determined by management to eliminate all steps and discharge immediately. An employee may be subject to discipline or discharge for any reason, whether set forth in this Handbook. In all cases, determination of appropriate discipline, including release, rests solely in the discretion of the employer and will be determined on a case-by-case basis. All steps are documented in writing regardless of the phase of the process.

Complaint Resolution/Grievance Policy

The Owner/Program Director of Safari will do its best to make your employment a good experience. If for any reason, you are unhappy or dissatisfied with the work, work conditions, or management policies, you should contact the Owner/Program Director to discuss the problem. If no satisfactory solution can be reached, the administrator shall be advised of the situation for resolution. Safari Child Care & Preschool recognizes that grievances may arise in the normal course of employment and are fully committed to ensuring that any such issues that arise can be discussed openly and dealt with satisfactorily and promptly. This policy provides a mechanism for you to raise a grievance relating to your employment. This may be about your job, your working conditions, training, etc.

All employees are encouraged to raise issues informally in the ordinary course of their work with their immediate co-workers. This should be done as problems arise and is usually the most effective way to resolve matters speedily. When a problem or issue arises that cannot be dealt with in this manner, the formal grievance procedure may be invoked.

If you are not happy with the response received through the informal stage or wish to raise a grievance formally in the first instance, you should raise the issue in writing with the administrator/director. This should clearly set out the nature of the claim and make it clear that the formal grievance procedure is being invoked. A Conflict Resolution Worksheet and/or an Employee Deficiency Report are available upon request.

A meeting will be arranged with you to discuss the grievance. If necessary, more than one session will be held. A decision on the claim will be confirmed in writing within ten working days of the grievance meeting being held. If you are not happy with the outcome after this process, you may appeal the decision in writing to the administrator. The decision at this stage will be final.

All grievances will be dealt with in a confidential manner, and no employee will be penalized for raising an objection in good faith. All meetings and outcomes will be documented, and a copy given to you. A copy will be placed on your personnel file.
